Religious News Notes.

ELD. POWELL, whose fine sermons have attracted large crowds to the Christian Church every night for two weeks, may preach his last sermon at the meeting to-night, and return tomorrow to his home in Louisville. There have been eighteen additions so far to the church, six joining last night—Nannie Jameson, Ollie Earlywine, Kate Gardner, Miss McDohald, Lee Tucker and Mr. Grinnelle. Mrs. R. Howe, Senie Rion and Lorine Butler joined Wednesday night, and Sara Grinnan, Margaret Sweney, Mrs. Reynolds-Helen Sprake and Russell Sprake were the joiners Tuesday night.

A Globe-Trotter Calls On The News.

THE above cut is a fair presentation of the features of Frank M. Phelps, of New York City, who called at THE NEWS office yesterday afternoon. Mr. Phelps was attired in a high silk hat and a bicycle suit and carried a small hand grip, from which he immediately produced his credentials in the shape of newspapers from different cities visited by him in various quarters of the globe. The papers all contained sketches of Phelps' visit and about his remarkable tour of the world.

Phelps also produced from his grip three bottles of perfume, one of which he called "The Breath of Heaven," and explained that he was a chemist and pharmacist and the perfumes were of his own manufacture, and after a liberal sprinkling of the perfumery in the sanctum he told the story of his travels to a score of gaping bystanders who were attracted by his odd mannerisms.

On July 4, 1895, as the result of a freak bet, he left a club room in New York clad only in a paper suit, and by the conditions of the wager he was to go around the world and return by July 4, 1898. Other conditions were that he was to accumulate in his journeyings $3,000 in cash, without begging, borrowing, stealing nor accepting gifts; and he must ride 12,000 miles on each hemisphere on a bicycle, or else forfeit $3,000.

Phelps says he has, since July 4, 1895, journeyed 41,000 miles—21,000 on a wheel and the balance on boats, cars and in other ways. He has visited England, Holland, France, Spain, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Austria Hungary, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Russia, Afghanistan, Persia, Arabia, Asia Minor, Egypt, Zanzibar, India, Ceylon, Colombo, Siam, China, Korea, Japan, Australia, Hawaii, Canada and twenty-six states of the Union.

Phelps says he has accumulated by the use of his wits in a thousand different ways all but about $400 of the necessary sum. He will be in Paris to-day and said he would visit the merchants and tell them about his travels.

The daring traveler will leave Paris this evening for Lexington, and will journey South to Central and South America, via Atlanta, Ga.; Tampa, Fla., and Havana, Cuba. He will return through Mexico.

Court Topics.

YESTERDAY in Squire Lileston's court Nan Montague, of Lylesville, was fined $5 for breach of the peace. She was the instigator of a fight between two children, which resulted in Nan and another colored woman being drawn into it. The children were ordered whipped by their parents.

The trial of Will Johnson, colored, charged with shooting and wounding W. C. Cunningham, at Cunningham Station, was called, but was postponed on account of the absence of the plaintiff.

Col. Baldwin's Life Threatened.

A SPECIAL from Maysville Tuesday said: "Upon Col. Baldwin's return from Lexington he found a dozen letters awaiting him threatening his life if he does not remove the gates on the Lexington pike. The letters all state the election is over now and the gates must be removed immediately or they will be torn down. Col. Baldwin has no fears for his personal safety, but this morning applied to the County Judge for guards for the gates, and was refused."

Buried In Louisiana.

THE remains of Edgar Sanders, a former Parisian, who died last Thursday of Bright's disease, in New Iberia, La., were interred at that place. The body could not be sent from New Iberia on account of the yellow fever quarantine. Mrs. W. G. Daily, a sister of Mr. Sanders, came here several days ago to attend the funeral, and was greatly worried over the delay in getting news from Iberia.

Three Boxing Contests.

Tuesday night a good sized crowd, in which were many representative citizens, witnessed the boxing carnival given at the opera house by the Paris Athletic Club.

The star event was a fifteen-round go between Kid Lefebvre of Cincinnati, and Louis Heller, of Evansville, Ind. The fight was clever and game throughout though Lefebvre's work began to weaken Heller in the eleventh round. In the thirteenth Heller was down six seconds at one time and nine at another, and after a blow on his neck after he was counted out. Barney Smith, of Cincinnati, who refereed all of the contests, gave the fight to Lefebvre.

The contest between Eddie Parker, a game light-weight boxer, of this city, and Sugarfoot Lee Hill, of Cincinnati, was a very interesting event. The bout was lively and full of clean, fast boxing. The only knock down was scored by Parker, who had the best of the fight. The fight declared a draw.

Dave Jackson, heavy-weight, of Paris, was given the decision in a match with Albert Taylor, of Georgetown.

It is said that Parker will box Brutus Clay, a Lexington fighter, in that city at an early date.

DRESS GOODS.

My importations for this Fall and Winter of Ladies' and Children's Dress Goods exceed in cost of investment $10,000 any other purchase I ever made in this one line of goods. With forty years' experience in Dry Goods business in Paris I saw it was to your and my interest to secure these goods under the low tariff, consequently I invested every available dollar I had in goods at low prices. The new Dingley tariff bill has already made and will when set fully at work make all classes of Dry Goods fully double in price what they were under the Wilson or low tariff. I have the advantage of this: My goods were bought when cheap, and it is my intention to hold them down as long as a yard of them lasts. If you want to save money in your purchase this Fall and Winter come and see me and examine my stock and hear prices before you invest elsewhere.
